

EASA - European & World Chapter

Operator and Responsible Persons Training Course for the Overhaul and Repair of Explosive Atmosphere Equipment

Typical Delegate Joining Instructions

Venue:

Street, Town/City, County, Post Code

Tel:

Fax:

Site Contact: Person

A, N. Other Works Manager
Mob:
E-mail

Trainer:

Bob Pearce Flexi Tech Training Ltd
Mob: 07785 950205
bob@flexitech.co.uk

Course Timetable:

Training	Monday	09.15 – 16.15
	Tuesday	08.45 – 16.15
	Wednesday	08.45 – 16.00

Assessment	Thursday	09.00 – 17.00
	Friday	08.00 – 16.00

Delegates travelling long distances, who need to finish early for flights, should contact the trainer before the training and assessment dates to facilitate scheduling.

Delegate Equipment:

The following equipment must be brought by each delegate on the course:

- Overalls or dust coat/jacket
- Safety shoes
- Safety glasses
- Calculator
- Pens & pencils

Pre-course Preparation

Before attending the course the delegate should familiarise themselves with the following:

- The Scheme Rules
- The Assessment Criteria
- BS EN (IEC) 60079-19
- EASA/AEMT Rewind Study and Good Practice Guide to Maintain Motor Efficiency
- The Ex Protection Concept Standards (a list of Ex Concept standards is attached)

Accommodation:

The delegate and/or his site management are responsible for arranging transport to and from the training venue and suitable accommodation near the training venue and all meals other than buffet lunches during the sessions.